- 3.2. Scanning the Quick Response (QR) Code found on the electronic COE which will provide access to the Administration's verification system for confirmation of the authenticity and validity of the COE.

WARNING: Users shall exercise caution when verifying electronic certificates. A QR Code on a certificate does not, by itself, establish the authenticity of the certificate. For certificates issued by the Administration, users shall verify that any website accessed through a QR Code uses the official kiribaship.com domain. Where there is any doubt as to the authenticity of a certificate or verification website, confirmation shall be obtained directly from the Administration.

- 3.3. Should there be queries or difficulty with the above verification methods, please contact the Administration at crew@kiribaship.com or at +65-6225-0555 for assistance in confirming the authenticity or validity of an electronic COE
